A comprehensive web-based tool for the analysis of core economic indicators and financial data with smart data visualization features. The application allows users to create personal insights using extensive data series.

Application Features

- Access any piece of data and create visualizations in a click
- Discover underlying trends more efficiently
- Create data discovery, transformation, and visualization
- Manage and analyze your core economic indicators
- Access financial data
- Search by mnemonic and full-text
- Access historical data

The solution allows users to discover underlying trends more efficiently and generate comprehensive reports that can be shared with colleagues and other parties.